NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

It costs less!—it lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy Right for 28 years from May 8th, 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivaled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

Philadelphia, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

JUDGE ALDEN.

This notorious swindler, we learn, is now in Richmond, and holds a "post" under President Grant, in the Revenue Department. There is but one post only, which he merits, and that is the whipping post.

A year ago, or thereabouts, this scoundrel, Alden, fled from this city like a thief, and we offered $50,000 reward for him, payable in Confederate money, and are now disposed to renew the offer.

Before running away from here, he stated that our immaculate Legislature had been bought up, and he offered to buy it up again, but had to leave suddenly before the terms could be arranged.

The immediate cause of his sudden departure from this city was to avoid the service of a writ at the hands of the Sheriff, send out by Mr. A. W. Dimmer, of New York. The facts of the case are these:

General Littlefield, (of glorious memory,) borrowed $7,000 of Mr. Dimmer and gave him his note for it. Mr. D. gave the note to Judge Alden for collection. The Judge presented the note to Littlefield who, being flush about that time, paid it without a suit.

Judge Alden, after collecting the money, informed his client, Mr. Dimmer, that Littlefield was broke, and had no property out of which the money could be made, but that he had a fine diamond breast pin, worth about $3,000, and that he could get the pin for the debt, and offered to give Dimmer that amount for the note, which offer was accepted and Alden paid Dimmer the $3,000.

A short time afterward, Littlefield went to New York, and he and Dimmer met, when D. informed him that he had sold the debt to Alden, and the circumstances under which it was done; Littlefield produced the note, cancelled, declaring he had paid it in full, and that prior to the time Alden had represented Littlefield as broke, and bought the note for the $3,000!

Mr. Dimmer came to Raleigh, employed counsel and had a writ issued against Alden and put it in the hands of an officer. It is said that "the early bird catches the worm," but the worm, meaning thereby Judge Alden, was a little earlier than the bird on this occasion, for, before the officer was stirring next morning, Alden, carpet-bag in hand, hired a carriage in company with Pruyn, the man of Penitentiary swindle notoriety, and made a short cut for Page's depot, where they took the train for parts beyond our Sheriff's bailiwick.

We do not mention these facts so much for the purpose of exposing Alden, (for he'll expose himself sooner or later, wherever he goes,) but to let the Governor know his present whereabouts, in case correspondence between them prudentially ceased at the above little denouement. For Alden, in those days, was a bosom friend of the Governor's and belonged to his reconstruction staff. He traveled about the State with Major Smith and other Holdenites, making speeches and abusing rebels. We are sure his old friends and confreres here will be glad to hear from him and learn that he is in a position to do well for himself—the first chance he gets.

The corruption of Gov. Holden's administration has already written the death doom on the party in this State; so, we expect that, after the August election, Judge Alden will return here, and he and Laflin, Deweese, Abbott, Estes, Davis, and such carpet baggers, aided by Holden, Windy Billy Henderson, Chicken Stephens, and John Pool, will have us reconstructed again. All the vacancies on the Supreme Court Bench being filled, we do not believe Judge Pearson will give aid, countenance or encouragement to the move—certainly he will not write another letter.

There is a preacher in the mountains, belonging to the Northern Methodist Church, who has already commenced inculcating the idea of a second reconstruction. The king of the kildees, Lassiter, of Penitentiary Committee fame, has held the same sort of talk. Gen. Banks, in Washington, has declared in favor of again taking military possession of the South, and Holden's inflammatory and libelous proclamation against the people of Alamance is in furtherance of the same scheme.

There is no doubt of the defeat of the Holden and the carpet bag dynasty in August, and equally as little doubt that Judge Alden, Deweese, Laflin, Abbot, and other carpet-bag vagabonds, would have us under military rule again if they could. Then we might look for Alden, Laflin, Estes, Crane and Kehoe, with all the small-sized radicals, like him who stole the post office funds and watches, at Nashville, N. C., to return in full feather, for another pick at the old carcass.

THE CHARLOTTE Observer, speaking of the sale of real estate in that city on Friday last, says, notwithstanding the decline in gold, the figures at which the property sold shows that real estate in Charlotte not only holds its own, but is really advancing in price.

THE SITUATION.

In order that our friends may see what opinion is entertained, out of the State, in regard to our prospects in the approaching campaign, and of the position taken by anti-Radicals in the Address of the Conservative members of the Legislature to the people of this State, we copy the following article from the Richmond, (Va.,) Whig, of a recent date:

SOUTHERN POLITICS.

Throughout the South the people are moving towards the adoption of a sound line of policy. But a few days since intelligence was published giving the result of a Press Conference in South Carolina, in attendance upon which the editors of all the anti Radical papers of the State met, and unanimously declared in favor of recognizing the civil and political rights of all classes of the male population, and a union of all men, of whatever previous political views, for the redemption of the State from a condition of corruption, misrule and ex ravagance.

And now comes the good news that North Carolina has taken a great stride in the same direction, and is preparing to enter the August campaign untrammelled by the restrictions of past differences, dead issues, or powerless party names.

The Legislature of the latter State being on the eve of adjournment, the Conservative Senators and Representatives have united in an address to the people calling upon them to reorganize the opposition to radicalism on a basis which shall be broad enough to invite the co operation of all opponents to corrupt and incompetent administration of the government.

We quote a paragraph from the address which appeared in the Raleigh SENTINEL of Monday, 28th March:

"In the battle we are about to join against Radicalism, reckless extravagance, corruption, imbecility and partizan tyranny, why should we stop to enquire whether our leaders were in the past Whigs, Democrats, Unionists or Secessionists, so they but lead us to victory, and save us from a defeat, the results of which would be nothing less than absolute ruin to the State? The man who now attempts to exhume the buried past, to revive the prejudices born of issues long since dead, and which ought to be forgotten, will, intentionally or unintentionally, contribute to the strength of our common enemy. Let the bickerings of the past be hushed; let us rise above the dwarfed idea that would lead to enquiry of a man's former political affinities; but us but ask is he an opponent of Radicalism? Is he honest? Is he competent?"

The address goes on to accept the status of the colored man fixed by law as a finality, and to pledge every effort to elevate him, morally and intellectually. It recites the iniquities practiced by Holden's administration and the present Assembly, and concludes by suggesting a plan of organization, which is similar in general features to that adopted by the Conservatives of Virginia during the recent canvass.

We are heartily glad to chronicle this action on the part of our sister State. It is most judicious. It attracts to the party of intelligence and virtue all those elements of political strength which can secure permanent success, and carries with it a moral weight all the more effective, because of its striking contrast to the Bourbonism, the unteachableness, the bitterness and partizan persistency of Southern Radicalism. The latter party scoffs danger in the progressiveness of its adversaries, but it knows no new mode of warfare. It has grown so used to appeal to force that it forgets the restoration of supremacy to the ballot-box. We are not, therefore, surprised that, following the inauguration of the movements recited above, Governor Holden should have dispatched to Washington a prayer for the suspension of habeas corpus in his dominion, while Governor Scott hastens to the Capital and declares "that the Winchester rifle is the best law for his party in the approaching South Carolina elections."

This will but accelerate the motion and swell the volume of the Conservative wave. Let our friends oppose law to violence and reason to threats, and all will be well. The power which has been usurped heretofore by these despotic rulers over free peoples, will avail them little against the indignation which their acts of oppression have called into existence. Feasting, modern BELSHAZZARS, in the halls of those whom they have despoiled, even while the revelling was at its height, the foundations of their strongholds have been undermined, and the handwriting glimmers on the banquet walls. They have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. A few short years, and the existence of such a class of public enemies will be remembered only as are pestilences and scourges of the past, in thankfulness that they have departed hence and in prayer that they may be seen no more forever.

RECOVERED CORRESPONDENCE.

We picked up the letter which we give below, lying about loose, and publish it because it is "too good to be lost." If people will be so careless of their papers, it is not our fault if they find a different destination to that intended. This letter seems to have been written some two or three weeks ago, as the rumors about a "new party," that were rife then, seem now to have died out. But to the letter.

To Gov. W. W. Holden:

DEAR SIR:—I understand that you and the rest of our friends are going to form a new party, to be called the "Moderate Party." Now, that is the very idea, and I am glad you have struck it. It is the only thing that can save us, for, the fact is, we are "treed on the ground," and the dogs are barking fiercely, and unless some new hole is discovered for us to dodge into, our whole radical party in this State, and you, my dear Governor, will be swallowed up alive.

The internal people all over the State are furious about the stealing and frauds of our party, and I'm afraid they won't stand it much longer. So, let us have a new party, and that quick, or it will be too late. Let us change our names, change our coats; as to our principles, we have none to change. Let every man that wears whiskers, as the Senator of Wilkes does, cut them off, and every man that has a smooth face, like you have, Governor, turn out a rousing pair.—We can paint Jim Harris white, and paint you black, if it be necessary for disguise, and fix up in twenty-four hours, so that "the mothers that bore us will not know us."

But I leave all these things to you, Governor, for you are an old hand at the business, and have done the same thing twenty times before; only let it be done quickly, Governor, for there is no time to lose.

I assure you that the "ku klux and military bill" dodge of yours was a smart thing, and made me feel prouder of you than ever; but it wouldn't do, for that scamp, Jo Turner, kept up such a fuss about our stealing that the people have become more afraid of us than they are of the ku klux or the devil, himself; so that it is necessary for us to change our coats, and our very skins, if possible.

"Moderate Party!" "None but moderate men;" that's the idea, and it was smart in you to think of it. The very words will fool many an old logy, and will cover up a heap of stealing. You, of course, are a moderate man, for if there ever was a moderate party in the world, you have belonged to it, for you have belonged to them all.

Then, you don't have to come before the people this summer, so you can stand a little in the background and pull the wires, and lend to the "moderate party" all your influence with the negroes and the leagues, if you have any left; and at the same time relieve the party from the burden of your unpopularity with the white folks, which, the Lord knows, and it grieves me to say it, is heavy.

The new party would be bound to reward you by sliding you into the U. S. Senate, towards the close of your term—do you see that, Governor? Of course you do.

Now, Governor, we must not take into the new party any such men as Graham or Vance; in short, any of those old fellows that have foolish, old-fashioned notions about honesty, for they might be troublesome about the time the stealing ought to commence in our new party. Then, they are not moderate men, for they won't even steal or swear lies "moderately." But all of our present Judges, except Mitchell, will do to take in, for all but him are damnation moderate in their knowledge of law and political integrity. All the Radical members of the Legislature will do, for they are moderate in ability and in hunting up thieves and swindlers.

All the Supreme Court Judges, too, are moderate—very moderate—except Pearson. He won't do dirty work with a good grace, even when paid for it. What do you say of him, Governor? Shall we take him or not?

Littlefield, Swepson and the Ring will do to come in, for they haven't stolen the Capitol, yet, and I call that "moderate" in them.

In short, Governor, we can take in every body but those impracticable men, who won't sell their self-respect for office, as our folks all did at the close of the war.—And thus, Governor, we can hold on to the offices and have a glorious party, that will blind the people as bad as our old Republican party did, and we will show the old fogies what fools they are to be honest.

I will write to you soon, again, Governor, about our new party, and you must write to me and let me know how you are getting along with it. Keep this letter close and don't let anybody see it, for if Jo Turner were to get hold of it, he is just fool enough to stop it into his paper, and then the fat would be in the fire, sure enough.

Your "moderate" friend,

WILKES.

For the Sentinel.

HILLSBORO', March 28, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—We are greatly surprised in Orange, that the SENTINEL has taken no issue with the Hillsboro' Recorder, since the editor dined with the Governor and went over to William A. Smith & Co.

I send you a few extracts from the Standard, written by the Governor, himself; it may be our neighbors of the Recorder have not gotten over the fright which the Governor gave them when he threatened to suppress their paper. If the SENTINEL will make no trade with the Recorder, we tell you the people of Person, Caswell and Orange will. Yours,

ENO.

From the Standard 1866.

Edward J. Hale & Sons, of the late Fayetteville Observer in a card published in the Fayetteville Daily News of 29th June, announce "that at the earnest appeal of many valued friends, they are considering whether to resume the publication of the Observer." We regret the card referred to exhibits no disposition on the part of E. J. Hale & Sons to submit unconditionally and cheerfully to the national authority.

We have also seen the American of 6th July, 1865, Statesville, E. B Drake & Son. This paper exhibits little if any evidence that its editors are reconciled to the Federal authorities. Its tone, if not defiant and insolent like that of the Chronicle, is nevertheless bad. It says: "Gov. Brown of Georgia, has been paroled and returned to his family. Why has not the same act of grace been extended to Gov. Vance?"

We do not wish to refer to Gov. Vance, but the above attack on the President, forces us to do so. Gov. Brown opposed and denounced the Davis despotism two years. Governor Vance justified the Davis despotism and did all he could to prevent peace. Gov. B. preferred reconstruction to the ruin of the State. Gov. Vance would not listen to the proposal to reconstruct in any event, but declared he would fight till the last extremity. Gov. Brown has submitted unconditionally and cheerfully to the United States authority, and has gone home to aid in reconstructing Georgia and placing her under the old flag. Will Gov. Vance also submit cheerfully and unconditionally?

We have seen a copy of the Milton Chronicle 30th July, published by C. N. B. Evans & Son, which breathes anything but a feeling of loyalty, towards the national government. We do not deem it necessary to make extracts from the Chronicle to show the sentiments it contains. It is sufficient to say that it is not such a paper as should be circulated in the U. S. Mails. The Senior Editor was Post Master under Jeff Davis and therefore stands in need of a pardon from the President before he can be a citizen of the United States, and the Junior Editor is a paroled officer having served in the so called Confederate Army.—If it be the intention of the Chronicle to continue to create disaffection towards the government, and apologize for Jeff Davis and secession by protesting against the absolute and final abolition of slavery in North Carolina, and by denouncing the men of the government as a despotism with a despot at its head, we have no hesitation in saying that the paper ought to be suppressed.

With reference to treasonable papers, we will simply add, they will not be tolerated, in North Carolina; malcontents and traitors will be controlled and silenced, and if mild means will not do, then, severer measures will be adopted. We means what we say. The day of Jeff Davis and his partizans is past.

THE KU KLUX TRIAL IN RUTHERFORD.—We clip the following from the Rutherford Vindicator of the 28th ult., in regard to the Ku Klux trial in that county. The Star, both of the editors of which were engaged on the trial, has not a word in regard to it:

THE TRIAL.—At a late hour on Saturday, the preliminary examination of the witnesses in the case of the parties charged with Ku Kluxing was brought to a close, and four of the parties, W. C. Dobriest, W. A. Baber, R. A. McEntire and Amos Owens, were bound over to Court; Julius B. Fortune and Olin Carson were released, and four of the witnesses, Webb Toney, Wm. Holland, Aaron Biggerstaff and A. Ramsey were also bound over to answer a charge of assault, with intent to kill S. Biggerstaff.

The Radicals, who were so anxious to make political capital of this unfortunate affair, will perhaps see that the game stands four Conservatives and four Radicals.

These witnesses have caught themselves, and if found guilty of the charges against them, will doubtless remember with what bitterness they gave their evidence against the parties charged with Ku Kluxing.

Cook's Hotel, for the purpose of repairing and cleaning watches, jewelry, &c. Mr. Williams is an expert workman in his line, and will faithfully perform any work that may be trusted to him.

POSTPONED.—Owing to the very unpropitious state of the weather yesterday afternoon, the meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association, at the Lecture room of the Presbyterian Church, was but thinly attended. The meeting was therefore adjourned to Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the same place, at which time it is earnestly requested that every member who can, will attend.

MERCHANTS' INDEPENDENT FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of this Company at the Court House, on Thursday evening, at 7½ o'clock, at which all the members are earnestly requested to attend.

J. B. JORDAN,
Acting Foreman.

IN LIMBO.—Rubini, the magician, who exhibited here at Tucker Hall last week, and distributed presents by lot to the audience, was arrested in Wilmington, on Friday night last, on a charge of conducting a lottery, contrary to an ordinance of the city. His case was to be tried yesterday.

REGULAR monthly meeting of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, at the Court House this (Tuesday) evening, April 5th, at 7½ o'clock.

DISCONTINUED.—The Daily Carolina Times and the Weekly News, published in connection with it, in Charlotte, has been discontinued for the want of remunerating patronage.

The trial of the murderers of ex Sheriff, King commenced at Whitesville on Wednesday last. Applewhite and Lowry were first put on trial, the two Oxendines await the result of this trial before they will be arraigned.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—We learn, says the Fayetteville Eagle, the dwelling, smoke house, and kitchen of David G. McDuffie, four miles west of town, with all his provisions, furniture, &c., were burned yesterday. No insurance. This is a severe loss on one of our best citizens. We have not learned the details or cause of the fire.

THE WEATHER.—
Every one cries, "sich weather! sich weather!
We hardly have two pretty fair days together."
Last week it rained and it hailed and it blew,
Yesterday, ditto, be'dies that, it snow;
And then the sun shin out, resplendent and bright,
And Fayettevi le street mud was shrouded in light;
Then snow, rain and hail began to fly about again;
For, full half an hour, then the sun sh n out again;
Again we felt glad to see Sol's bright rays,
And prophesied, now, we'd have many fair days.
But Oh! how we modern prophets do blunder,
In another half hour it was snowing "like thunder."
At last old Sol sunk the bright West adorning,
Heaven only knows how he'll rise in the morning;
Perhaps in his bright beams, the birds may be vocal,
If so, we will notice it in a short "Local."

RETIRES.—Robert M. Furman, Esq., retires from the chair editorial of the Ridgeway Press, and publishes his valedictory in the last week's issue.

HORSE-CART LOST.—Since the recent rains set in, somewhere in the mud of Fayetteville street, probably opposite the new Market House, a large, new horse cart, with a strong mule attached. It may be the mule dragged the cart out at some of the crossings, if so, any information of the fact will be gladly received by the disconsolate loser, at the Upper Turpentine Still, on Hog Branch. P. SNOOKS.

ABOVE SUSPICION.—A number of the most prominent and influential citizens of the noble old commonwealth of Kentucky have united together to from and recommend to the people at large for patronage, a very attractive Prize Scheme; and we are glad to be able to say that the inducements are so great, and the security for the faithful performance of all promises so strong, that it places the whole thing entirely above suspicion. We will be happy to furnish any of our friends information on the subject or to aid them in securing tickets.

ROBESON.—The Robesonian speaks most despondingly of the condition of affairs in this county, and says, that unless the people are protected from the murderers and robbers that infest the county, they will have to "protect themselves by the means which God and nature have put in their power." Why don't the people form themselves into voluntary companies to ferret out and arrest the desperadoes and turn them over to legal prosecution? If they are known we should think the county might be scoured until they are caught; if they are not known, we cannot see how a Company of U. S. Troops can assist to detect them more easily than native citizens. We believe there are good and reliable men in any and every county of the State ready and willing, when called on, to assist the civil authorities in arresting all such outlaws; it is certain the experiment has not yet been tried, that we have heard of.

BURNED.—The barn of W. P. Carson, of Rutherford, was burned recently; the work of an incendiary.

THE ADDRESS.—Since we noticed the comments of a portion of the State Press, last week, on the Legislative Address, other exchanges have come to hand, and we find in them the same spirit of approval and commendation. The Wilson Plaindealer notices it as follows:

Dignified and dispassionate, it appeals rather to the judgments than to the prejudices of the people; and seeks by an array of facts and argument, of unquestionable truth, to convince them that longer confidence in the Republican party is both unwise and dangerous. The present unhappy condition of our State finances is stated with clearness and precision; and that condition is ascribed to its true cause—the profligacy, extravagance, and criminal indifference of those, who for nearly two years, have been charged with the administration of our Governmental affairs. Yielding the question of suffrage, as decided by the incorporation of the 15th amendment into the general Constitution, it proposes a new departure, and gives as the rallying cry of the clans in the approaching campaign: Honesty and Economy in the conduct of the State Government, and the fullest protection to the rights of the citizens of that Government. The reckless disregard of the best interests—of the honor, welfare and safety of the people, by the dominant majority in the late Legislature, is given thorough exposure; and the record of Radicalism, as made by its management of our affairs, is submitted to searching analysis and unqualified condemnation. The "address" is, in fact, our platform for the canvass, and as such, should have extensive circulation throughout the State.

For the Sentinel.

COMPANY SHOPS, April 4th, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—My attention has been called to a communication in the Standard, of the 31st instant, signed "Alpha," in which the scribbler, labors very earnestly, by quoting a garbled extract from my letter of the 11th instant, to create the impression that I have assumed the prerogative of an apologist, for the outrages committed by the leagues and Ku Klux, against the peace and good order of society in Alamance County. And as I dislike very much the necessity of being forced to skin small dogs, I will make the skinning process as short as possible, by saying to my esteemed friend "Alpha," that he is as weak in logic as in law, when he attempts to measure my motives by construing them to suit his own narrow, perverted standard of reasoning.—I would ask "Alpha," if his littleness can comprehend the question, wherein have I failed to counsel obedience to law, as the only safeguard to civil liberty, and the only prescribed method, by which we can possibly expect to regain our former happiness and prosperity? And whenever he attempts by insinuation or direct allegation, like a skulking midnight assassin disguised as "Alpha," to create the impression that I am a friend or an apologist for lawlessness and crime, whether committed by leagues or Ku Klux, I assume the responsibility of saying that he is an infamous liar, a vile miscreant, a branded coward and a base hypocrite, and, however, great the desire his little mind may have conceived to bring reproach upon me for the part I have performed in defending the peace-loving and law-abiding people of Alamance against the vile slanders of such unscrupulous scribblers as "Alpha," who, "pinched by hunger writes to dine," his efforts will prove as futile as the homely illustration in Bunyan's Pilgrims Progress, when the white robbed pilgrim, on his way to the Celestial City passed through the defile of sin guarded by the wicked one, who pelted him with red mud, yet he journeyed on without a stain upon his garment. I ask not his favors and I fear not his frowns.

I am very respectfully &c.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—HOUSE.—The House refused to accede to a resolution to adjourn in May. A bill fixing a day for the elections to Congress in 1872, in the meantime, Congressional elections to occur on days designated by State laws, is pending.

SENATE.—Unimportant.

Delano appeared before the House Judiciary Committee in defense of the action of his supervisor in seizing the cories within the Cherokee country. Judge Fosehall argues in behalf of the Indians at the next meeting. The impression is strong that the Revenue Department blundered in these seizures.

Pierce's correspondent of the Boston Journal, telegraphs that Bingham's amendment will pass the senate. This morning's Republican makes the same assertion. The Conservative Republican delegation here claim that the amendment will be carried by Colfax's vote on a divided Senate.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, April 4.—Gen. Canby has not yet furnished troops for the ejection of Ellyson from the City Hall, and the U. S. Marshal is now summoning a large civil posse to demand the surrender. If that posse should fail to obtain possession, it is understood that Canby will furnish troops.

The blacks are to-day celebrating emancipation day, and a large crowd of them are gathered around the City Hall.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The McFarland trial has commenced. A dense crowd present. McFarland was neatly dressed in black, and his demeanor is cool and collected.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, April 4.—A general movement against the rebels in the central department has commenced. Separate columns left Puerto Principe and another from Puerto del Padro.—Valmeseda has advanced to Canto. Gen. Gaynche is in the mountains behind Sibanaco, and has captured a depot of artillery and many small arms and 300 men, who report the insurgents in a state of dissolution.

Two powerful torpedoes were taken from under the rails of the Seouvitas and Puerto Principe Railroad

Forty rebels were killed in Holoquin district.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Revenue to-day nearly $1,250,000.

Boutwell has gone to Massachusetts.

No Southern nominations to-day.

Dr. Sam Bard has received his commission as Governor of Idaho, and qualified before the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

HOUSE.—Among matters introduced under the regular call was a bill granting land to the Kansas City and Memphis R. R. A resolution was introduced amending the Constitution of the United States, which reads as follows:

Sec. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of sex.

Sec. 2 Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. The resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The following bill passed under a suspension of the rules;

"Elections shall be held in all the States on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1872, for the election of Representatives to the 43rd Congress, and the election shall be held on the same day of every second year thereafter for members of Congress, to take their seats on the succeeding 4th of March. In case of a failure to elect, the vacancy shall be filled by a special election to be held under the authority of the several States.

Tariff resumed. Sugar, raw and muscovado and all other sugar up to No. 12, the duty standard is fixed at 2 cents per pound. Adjourned.

SENATE.—Indian affairs were considered. The Quakers desire certain land in order to enable them to continue their efforts in behalf of the Indians. The discussion showed that the Quakers had improved the lands in question, but the Shawnees in violation of the 12 year old agreement, desired it to be sold for Shawnee benefit.

Flanagan introduced a bill incorporating the Southern Pacific Railroad with the right of way from the Rio Grande to San Diego.

Chandler offered a resolution that when the Georgia bill was resumed, that there be a constitutional session until the question was closed. Objection was made and the resolution went over under the rules.

The Georgia bill was resumed. During the discussion Stewart said it would require all of two years to complete the preparations for a fair election, and Georgia would then be made a Republican State; but if the election should take place sooner, rebels would get control.—The authorities he died this time, the Legislature needed it to pass registration and other laws. Thurman asked if seven months would not be enough? Mr. Stewart doubted whether two years would be enough.

Edmunds—"Why not make it four years?"

Stewart—"Well that would be better."

The Supreme Court held that the writ of error to a State Court is not a writ of right, and that it will not, therefore, issue unless allowed by the Judge of the proper State Court, or is allowed after a due inspection of the record by a Judge of this Court under this construction of the Judiciary act.

The case of Gleason, Lieut. Governor of Florida, was dismissed, it appearing that the State Judge had refused the writ and that it had never been allowed by a Judge of this Court.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, April 4.—The election very quiet. Heavy snow storm progressing. The advices are unfavorable to Republicans, whose greatest strength is in county towns. No figures yet obtained.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, April 4.—All quiet to-night. The military have not interfered, nor does it now seem likely that they will do so. Two Deputy Marshals went to Ellyson's head quarters this afternoon and went through the form of attempting to eject him and then retired.

The celebration of Emancipation day by the negroes passed off quietly. The procession was very small on account of the rain.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, April 4.—The penitentiary at Jeffersonville, Indiana, was burned; one prisoner smothered in his cell.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S "VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OVER TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

And it shall be the duty of said general agent to furnish each of his subagents with a commission authorizing him to do business. And any one found soliciting insurance without such commission, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than one thousand dollars and imprisoned not less than ninety days. The agent effecting the insurance shall, on the first days of April, July, October and January, make returns to the sheriff of the county in which the insurance is effected, of all the business done by him during the preceding quarter in said county, and shall pay to him the county tax assessed on such business. The general agent shall also, on the first days of April, July, October and January, make returns to the sheriff of each county, of the amount of gross receipts for premiums received from such county for such quarter. It shall further be required of the general agent or his local agent, to pay to the sheriff of each county the county tax assessed upon the gross receipts of premiums collected in such county, at the time and in the manner as required by the State, and no municipal corporation shall be allowed to add any additional tax: Provided, That no county or corporation shall be allowed to tax insurance agents for license. On failure to make returns, or to pay as aforesaid, said agent shall pay twenty-five dollars for each policy effected or negotiated by him in such county.

SEC. 33. Any person proposing to follow any taxed trade or profession may take out a license in advance of the time when he proposes to begin such trade or profession, or in advance of the expiration of a license already held by him. In such case the license shall be truly stated, and shall specify the time at which it shall begin to be of force, as well as the time when it shall expire, which shall always be on the first day of January, April, July and October.

SEC. 34. No license issued by the sheriff shall be valid until the same shall have been exhibited to and countersigned by the register of deeds of the county, who shall receive for the services imposed on him by this act in reference to licenses, a fee of ten cents from every person licensed.

SEC. 35. The Register of Deeds shall keep a book, in which he shall record the name of the person licensed, the trade or profession to be followed or the franchise to be enjoyed, the date at which it begins to run and the sum paid the Sheriff, and he shall, on the third Monday in January, April, July and October, send a certified copy of such record, for the quarter last preceding, to the Auditor of the State, who shall charge the Sheriff with the amount so appearing due. If any Register shall fail to perform the duty hereby imposed on him, he shall forfeit to the State a penalty of two hundred dollars, to be recovered of him and the sureties to his official bond, on motion in the Superior Court for the county of Wake, and on such motion a certified copy of his official bond and the certificate of the Auditor of State, setting forth his failure to make the required return, shall be prima facie evidence entitling the State to judgment in the absence of any sufficient defense.

SEC. 36 Every person who shall practice any trade or profession, or use any franchise taxed by the law of North Carolina, without first having paid the tax and obtained a license as herein required, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also forfeit and pay to the State a penalty not to exceed twenty dollars at the discretion of the Court, and in default of the payment of such fine, he may be imprisoned for not more than one month at the discretion of the Court, for every day on which he shall practice such trade or profession, or use such franchise, which penalty the Sheriff of the county in which it is incurred shall cause to be prosecuted for before any Justice of the Peace of the county.

SEC 37 The Sheriff shall immediately report to the Register of Deeds, all sums recovered by him as penalties under this act, and the Register shall add three-fourths of each penalty recovered to the record of licenses required to be kept by him; the other fourth the Sheriff may retain.

SEC. 38. No license shall be granted to any person until the license tax due by such person shall be duly secured by bond as required in section thirteen of schedule "B."

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased, fifty per cent. All the losses reported to 1st Jan'y last amounted to but $46,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 924 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and inducements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assets, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

—o—

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

—o—

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo.

It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in its profits from the beginning.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years, and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus Street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot, and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South.

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than anybody else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low price.

Address,
W. H. VAUGHAN
mar 9-tf Box 290 Raleigh.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE Messrs. Tr maine Bro's. took the first premium at the Virginia State Fair on their celebrated Pianos. These gentlemen fully understand their business, being thorough musicians themselves. Call at the Store of E. VIA, 26, Fayetteville Street and examine one of the finest they have ever made.
